Dear Harold

Thanks for your note. I was delighted to learn that your health problems are under control. You always were a tough old buzzard. I sent a copy of your letter to Dr Segal. I thought it would please him.

We are all well. Jon is finishing his first year at Princeton. David a junior in highschool. Jill is helping me with my publishing business. I spend little time practicing law - more time developing publishy projects for distribution in the mass market by companies like Dell, Pocket Book etc.

Keep up the good work. You remain the most careful researcher I have ever met & the most moderate of revolutionaries

All my best,

Dick
